University of Findlay Archives

Revised May 10, 2016

The University of Findlay Archives

The primary mission of The University of Findlay Archives is to support the teaching and research endeavors of faculty, students and the community by making materials pertaining to the history and culture of the institution accessible and to collaborate with University of Findlay administration, faculty and staff in the collection of materials useful to these endeavors. Further information concerning the scope and purpose of the collection, as well as information concerning specific management procedures, may be found in the Archives Policy and Management Plan.

Arrangement of the Collection

Whenever possible, records are kept in their original order and categorized by source rather than subject. In some cases, however, arrangement is according to subject matter or type of record. The framework for classification of archival records relating to the university is outlined below.

- I. Presidents of the University of Findlay: Miscellaneous Historical Records
  - II. Administrative Materials by Presidential Administration
  - III. Shafer Library Materials
  - IV. Publications Including Institutional Works of Art
  - V. Campus Organizations and University Activities
  - VI. Faculty/Staff and Alumni Records
  - VII. Pictorial Records and Memorabilia
  - VIII. Church of God Archives
  - IX. Winebrenner Seminary Materials
  - X. Scrapbook Collections
  - XI. Community and Other Miscellaneous Historical Materials
  - XII. Notes on the Memorabilia Displayed in University Archives Reading Room
- 219

The above record groups are divided into subgroups identified by alphabetic designation. For example, IV-A designates publications of the faculty and staff. Subgroups are further arranged by whatever scheme, alphabetical, chronological or topical, will facilitate their description or utility. The Archives Holdings Guide thus outlines an inventory of the collection as well as brief descriptions of items and information on where each item is located.

The format changed to a larger format; the title of the publication is still Findlay College News, as published by students of the college. It is not the same as the previous weekly newsletter however it is still published by Reverend Brown as previously. The publication changes at this time to being published monthly during the school year, the 15th day of each month.

It is unknown whether there were any issues of Findlay College News from May, 1907 until December, 1909. In December, 1909 there was another format change. The publication name became Findlay College News, New Series; published monthly during the school year. They went back to using the year but began the December, 1909 issue as the 12th Year. If it had been published from sometime between Fall 1907 to Spring 1909, this would have been the 11th and 12th Years.

Findlay College News temporarily ceased publication as such after October, 1940 however it is clear the Orange Peal was intended as a successor to the Findlay College News (the November 1940 issue of the Orange Peal states that it succeeds the College News and that it is published by Findlay College.) The Orange Peal from this period is similar in format to the College News although it did not maintain the old numbering system in print. Nevertheless, when Findlay College News began again in May 1944, it started at Volume 35.

(The Orange Peal as a student publication was published from September, 1927 as a weekly student newsletter that succeeded the monthly Argus when the Argus became an annual. The numbering of the old Argus carried on into the student version of the Orange Peal which continued publication until 1932; see Section D. 2. for that student version of the Orange Peal.)

The Orange Peal as an institutional publication: November 1940 through May 1942.

These are located with the Findlay College News issues on the shelves in Room 219; there are no other extras. There are no bound volumes.

September, 1942 to May, 1943 would have been the 39th Year, Volume 33 although there is evidence that it was not published after May, 1942 due to the war and very low enrollment.

September, 1943 to January, 1944 would have been the 40th Year, Volume 34; the volume number and year were likely to have been deemed changed in 1944 to the 41st Year, Volume 35 even though there was no publication of Volume 33 or 34.

*Note that The Y-Zette was published jointly by members of the Findlay College YMCA and YWCA from January, 1942 through June, 1943; it contains news about the college during the years of WWII and can fill some gaps between The Orange Peal and the re-emergence of Findlay College News. See D. 17. for The Y-Zette

Findlay College News reappeared in May, 1944 beginning as the 41st Year, Volume 35; it was no longer published in June, August or December. There is a bound volume of Findlay College News from Volume 35, 1944 to Volume 50, 1959 in Room 219 on the shelves. The numbers listed below are the unbound issues boxed in Room 215.

 May 23, 1929; vol. 23 [reads 23], no. 17 [reads 16]; 1 copy

There are no issues from September, 1929 – June, 1930 in Archives so it is unknown whether there were any published but this is unlikely

The issues listed below state that the publication has changed from weekly to bi-weekly, that it was slow getting (re)organized and that it had not been published actively and regularly

These are the last issues in Archives:

September 24, 1930; vol. 24, no. 1; 1 copy
 December 19, 1930; vol. 24, no. 2; 2 copies

October 1, 1931; vol. 25, no. 1; 2 copy

The Orange Peel as a student magazine likely discontinued after this issue

3.) The Argus (as a yearbook)

Argus as a yearbook begins in 1927 (there are both soft cover and hard cover editions of the debut 1927 Argus yearbook); the years of publication are listed below

Archives: There is one complete set of Argus yearbooks on the shelves in Room 217 and one on the shelves in Room 219; both sets were catalogued into the computer in September 2010 (these are not available for circulation but for use in Archives only)

There is third complete set of Argus yearbooks located on the 1st floor of Shafer Library.

There is another set of Argus yearbooks in Special Collections from years 1927 to 1997 – only missing 2012.

These are the extra copies located in the closet on the 2nd floor of Shafer Library:

17.) The Y-Zette

All copies of The Y-Zette are located in the Filing Cabinets in Room 217

The Y-Zette began as a Findlay College student literary publication in the form of mimeographed sheets containing student creative writing, some editorials and news items; Archives has the following issues:

February 9, 1937 (1 copy)

Fall, 1938 (1 copy)

1940? issue (1 copy)

Feb. 18 1940, vol. 8, no. 1 (1 copy)

March, 1941, vol. 8, no. 2 (3 copies)

By January, 1942, The Y-Zette had become a joint venture, published by members of the Findlay College YMCA and YWCA; members wrote, mimeographed and distributed The Y-Zette during the first half of 1942. It contains news items concerning Findlay College and fills some of the gaps during the years of WWII after the institutional version of The Orange Peel ceased and before Findlay College News began to publish again. It was still published in the form of mimeographed sheets; many of the sheets have no dates of publication although they are from the years during WWII.

The following issues were donated by Betty Rosencrans Bunts in 1992:

January 16, 1942 (1 copy)

January 20, 1942? (date uncertain) (1 copy)

March 3-4, 1942? (date uncertain) (1 copy)

December, 1942 (1 copy)

3 undated issues, maybe from 1942

January 20, 1943 (1 copy)

January 27, 1943 (1 copy)

February 10, 1943 (1 copy)

February 17, 1943 (1 copy)

April, 1943 (1 copy)

April 28, 1943 (1 copy)

May 5, 1943 (1 copy)
